RICHARD JOSEPH BRODERICK

Died on January 26, 2016. The beloved Richard Joseph Broderick was born in Washington, D.C. on December 18, 1947 to the late James and Olga Broderick. Richard married Ruth Malberg on January 22, 1967 and they were blessed with four children, Angela Marcy, Leda Duck, Julie Thomas, and James Broderick, and eight granddaughters, Briana, Brooke, Jamie and Julia Marcy, Abigail and Olivia Duck, and Maeve and Ree Thomas. Richard graduated with a BS, Electrical Engineering, from the University of Maryland in 1972 and earned a Masters in Engineering Administration from the George Washington University in 1981. In 2013, he retired from NASA Goddard Space Flight Center, where he worked as a Satellite Systems Electrical Engineer for more than 20 years. Richard was a member of Centreville Baptist Church, where he recently taught an adult Sunday school class. He and Ruth lived in their home in Gainesville, Va., for 32 years. The second of five children, Richard is also survived by his sisters, Shelley Rawlings, Patricia "Trish" Donnally, and his brother, Will Broderick. Richard's late sister, Frances Stewart Miller, died in 1986. He was an amazing man and loved by all that knew him. A viewing will be held at Centreville Baptist Church at 15100 Lee Highway, Centreville, Va. on Friday, January 29 from 3 to 5 p.m. The funeral will begin at 5 p.m. at the church, followed by a reception. There will be a graveside service at Stonewall Memorial Gardens on Saturday, January 30 at 2 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the missionary group at Centreville Baptist Church, where Richard and Ruth attended, or Vision Health International <http://www.visionhealth.org/> where Richard's daughter, Julie, serves as Treasurer.
