I'll always remember his laugh and his silly personality. He was always joking and was happy. I loved listening to him play his guitar and sing. I love you Uncle Richard. I know you're in a better place. I know you're with Mama and Papa and Uncle Bib having a great time! Thank you for coming to me in my dream the other night. It was good to see your smile, hear you laugh and watch you dance. RIP

Richard will be missed. His laugh was such a joy to hear from across the street. It would be like a reminder that everything is ok, in a way. And both He and Jing are such kind and generous people. When my husband died a couple of years ago, Richard started cutting our grass. Every week, he would cut his yard and then drive over and cut ours. He did this for two years which was such a relief for my daughters and I and I kind of felt he was looking out for us from across the way which Jing confirmed to be true in a recent conversation. A kind man, a good husband, and after listening to others speak about him, it seems He was also a good friend. May He find peace & comfort in the presence of God.

“ Hope this works... Thank you for remembering us too dear Beverly... Yes, everyone has that correct... Richard was kind, so very kind... His and Jing's home were always opened to his loved ones... As I shared before... The trip we made to their home, was more than we ever expected... Jing loved that big redneck and he surely loved her... Pete could never understand what he was saying and sometimes neither could I... But we would all laugh anyway... God be with Jing and help her get through this time of grief and heartache... My only wish is that I would have gotten our son to meet Richard... They would have had a blast!!! Love you my cousin and thank you for all the wonderful laughs and hugs and time with you and your wonderful wife... You are now in a much better place than we all are... And no more pain for you... I love YOU and always will... You will be greatly missed... God bless and keep your beautiful wife well and safe till she can join you in heaven... Precious hugs to all... From Pete and Linda
