

Richard Carroll Graves Sr.

October 16, 1954 - April 8, 2024

Richard Carroll Graves Sr. finished his April 8, 2024, late-model stock car race on the 69th lap. Although the pedal was to the metal, his gas tank ran empty leaving spectators to face the inevitable.

Ricky's race began on October 16, 1954, at Georgetown University Hospital. Born to Francis L. and Doris J. Graves, he was the third of six children. He grew up in Washington D.C. and Northern Virginia but settled in Manassas. That's where his love of drag and stock car racing began. Old Dominion Speedway became the favorite family past time.

He leaves behind his senior pit crew of Wendy A. Ketner (Charles) of Nokesville, Melissa S. Martin of Washington D.C. and Richard C Graves Jr. (Amanda) of Front Royal.

His prized junior pit crew: Mackenzie, Nathan, Katana, Erin, Mackayla and Vanessa always kept him on track. His most recent addition Cameron James rounds out the team.

He will be missed by many adoring family members, friends and fans alike.

The checkered flags will fly at Pierce Funeral Home, Manassas on Saturday April 20th with visitation starting at 2pm and memorial service at 3pm.
