“ Shane and the Kropp family, what a shock to hear that Rick is gone! You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Rick was such a kind, caring person. When I first started working with Rick, he was my first virtual manager.... I wasn't sure how to take him, we got off on a bit of a rocky road. But once we had a heart to heart and I figured out his sense of humor,ha! We were good friends!! He was always so positive and encouraging, we lost "one of the good guys". Rest in peace Rick, until we see each other again.

“ It is hard to put into words the impact the Rick had on everyone that was around him. I was fortunate to be on the same team as Rick and was able to share a lot of time with him. He was very kind and caring soul and always wanted the best for everyone around him. I was always blown away by his creativity. He would make the BEST presentations! He had such a great laugh and I will miss the New York accent. My wife would often eves drop from her office and comment that she loved listening to Rick talk in our meetings. She could always pick him out of the crowd during our meetings. We were fortunate to meet with Rick as a team last week via Zoom. We had a great conversation and had a few laughs and it was great to connect with everyone again. Rick sent me an email the following Monday, and signed it with a kind remark, as he was always thinking of the other person. He wrote: " I think your an amazing manager and I do wish you the very best. Find your joy!" Thank you for being a kind soul and friend to the end Rick. #AvengersForever - One last swipe of the Blue Card

“ Rick, I can't even believe you passed! I was so shocked and sadden by this awful news. You were my first official manager on the virtual team and made a huge impact on my work life. I probably wouldn't still be at Allstate if it wasn't for you. You were an awesome manager and I will miss your positivity and happy go lucky attitude. I truly am so thankful that I got to work with you and I will always remember you. Rest easy Rick, until we meet again!

To Rick's Family - I am so deeply sorry for your loss! Please know you are in my prayers.

“ My sincere condolences to Shane, Zach, Rachel and the Kropp family. We were brothers from tree-V and 56 Conklin and I never knew a kinder gentler person. I take comfort that he is with his beloved Christine. Rest in peace my buddy Kroppshuler.

“ Shane and Kropp Family-
I so wish I could be there to celebrate Rick's life tomorrow. Most of my memories of him are from long ago- bathed in the happy glow of childhood. I remember feeling so welcome and safe with him and Christine around. There was always a genial air and stability that can only come from a wonderful father who's top priority is his family. And we all know how much of the adults we become are related to a child's parents. I know Shane the best, and can safely say his incredible father has helped him become an amazing human. Rick left a legacy of wonderful children who are going to continue to make the world a wonderful place to be, just as he did. My heart aches in sympathy for your tremendous loss of an irreplaceable person.

“ Rick was a good friend to me during college. He was always ready to listen to me and lend a helping hand whenever needed. I remember once, after I graduated, I was driving up to visit my boyfriend (now husband) and on the way had a car accident. Luckily I was not far from Binghamton and some good Samaritan's helped me get back on my way. When I arrived at the house Rick shared with John and others, he was home alone. Seeing I was quite shaken he stopped what he was doing to offer me a ride to campus and a sense of calmness. This is just one example of a memory I have of Rick but they are all the same, good memories of a strong, kind, gentle person.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time and I will continue to pray for your father. I know he and your mom are together again.

“ Fabulous mentor, incredible manager, motivator and friend. Rick loved family and was so proud of Shane, Zach and Rachel. When we talked he would update me on how the family was doing and always talked about the positives of everyday. You are missed so much but re-united with the one you loved so much. Rest in peace and happiness my friend!
