

Richard Hannon Sheridan

October 6, 1936 - April 6, 2016

Richard (Dick) Hannon Sheridan, 79, of Manassas, VA, passed away on April 16. Dick was born in Independence, Kansas, in 1936, the son of Richard William Sheridan and Marie Hannon Sheridan. He grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and graduated from the University of Tulsa. He and his wife, Nance Frazer Sheridan, moved to Manassas in 1976, where both worked for IBM.

He is preceded in death by his wife. He is survived by sister Mary Wurst, of Oak Harbor, WA; brother Phillip W. Sheridan, of Stratham, NH; nephews John Wurst of Poway, CA, and Michael Sheridan of Silver Spring, MD; nieces Kathleen Hollingsworth of Bloomington, MN, and Susan Lof of Oak Harbor, WA; and nine great-nephews and nieces. All will miss him greatly.

Dick enjoyed all sports, especially football, and was a faithful Redskins fan. He played golf and was a member of Evergreen Country Club for many years. He was an avid reader and had a keen interest in history. He was a member of All Saints Catholic Church parish where he worked with the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

He was a resident at Caton Merchant House in Manassas where he was socially active and made many friends who will miss his friendship, his cheerful nature, and his generous spirit.

The family will receive visitors on Sunday, April 10, from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas. A funeral mass will be held at All Saints Catholic Church, 9300 Stonewall Road, at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, April 11, with burial immediately following at Stonewall Memory Gardens.
