“ My name is Castro, I am an employer of Mr. Richard Sisk. I met Dickie in 2002, I remember him always inviting me to work for him and he would tell me it would be better for me to work for him. But I was in doubt because I did not know him well. After him insisting for a while, I decided to give it a try. From then on I began to trust him. To me he was more than my boss, he was family, I loved him a lot. I once crashed and flipped over in one of his work vans and all he did was laugh when I told him. I will always have him in my memories and my heart my good friend and my good boss Richard Dickie Sisk. Rest In Peace.

“ As another person mentioned, I also met Dickie back in the 70's and ended up marrying his Westgate roommate. Yes, he was certainly a character and I loved him to death. He could be like a little teddy bear or the Kung Fu guy. He was a very sweet, loving person with a big heart. He will be missed! This hit John hard as well. Very unexpected.

“ I met Dickie back in the '70s when we both had the fast street car bug and got along from the start. I still laugh at the time Dickie was living at West Gate Townhouses with several other mutual buddies. One day while there, several friends were all joking about the Kung Fu tv show, when Dickie came down stairs and used the handrail to side jump off of the stairs into the living room. Very cool maneuver except the rail ripped off the wall and pole vaulted Dickie onto the sofa and shoved the seat cushions thru the bottom. I almost cried laughing. I moved away from Manassas 40 years ago and am sorry that I did not stay in touch with the many friends that I had. Dickie was a one of a kind and will be missed. Lewis Weaver was another we lost from the Kung Fu crowd. My thoughts and prayer go to Dickies family, Mike O'Donnell
