“ Richard was one of the kindest people I ever met. We have been friends since small children and I loved him like a brother. We spent many hours talking on the phone sharing stories about our lives and our families. His love for Janie was so strong. He simply adored her and told me every time we talked that she was the best thing that ever happened in his life and it humbled him to know that she shared that love. You will forever be missed my friend. What a blessing your friendship was to so many people.

“ I only met Richard twice but he recognized me as BK's husband. He was a kind man and I wish I had known him better. My wife grew to love him in the short time they had together. I grew to love him through the stories she told me.
