“ Dear Sue and Family - So sorry that John and I will be unable to attend the service today but we will be there in spirit. Our prayers are with you and your family today and everyday as you move forward.

One memory of Rich I will always remember. It was in the fall and the leaves were changing and the weather was sunny and bright - I looked and saw you and Rich walking back from the Gazebo on upper Chelmsford - you had a bottle of wine in your hand and you had gone up there for a little "Happy Hour." I know you did that on more than one occasion and I was so impressed to see the happiness it brought to both of you. Memories are a wonderful thing.

What a beautiful sunny day for a tribute to Rich. Thoughts are with you today.
