Hi Brittney, I was very close friends with your mom, and we fell out of touch. I searched for her for awhile and couldn't find her and when I did I was shocked and hurt to see she passed away! I didn't know your father, but I've missed my friend. I knew your grandmother and Aunt Kim as well. How is everyone doing?

“ To the Family of Ricky I offer my deepest sympathy. I worked with Ricky for the DAV. May it comfort you to know that during his tenure with the DAV and as a result of his arguments on behalf of disabled veterans many veterans and their families have been able to live better lives. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. God Bless you Ricky!

“ Our entire family was both shocked and saddened with the news that Rick has passed away. I first met Rick at a coaches clinic in 1994, when we were paired up to do soccer drills together. I was very impressed with his efforts despite having an artificial leg. From that day forward I always enjoyed talking to Rick, as we saw each other often on the soccer fields and when Jason was in his Boys Scout Troop. I will remember Rick for always having a smile on his face when I saw him. Our deepest condolences to Susan and his entire family.
