“ My heart is broken. I was just informed about Bob’s passing. I had the pleasure of meeting this lovely soul. I had the honor of spending the morning of your last birthday, I remember you didn’t want me to make a bid deal of your 88th birthday but I didn’t listen. Why would I?

So I brought you balloons and got doughnuts to the Senior Center, you were so happy when I got everyone together to sing you happy birthday and you hugged me tight and said thank you. But THANK YOU, for all your stories and all your jokes. And for always asking me about my husband Lt. Col Barnettband wanting to know about what he did. (He is in the ARMY) You would be greatly missed. With love to heaven, Tita Barnett.

“ Bob was a nice and wonderful man. I remember seeing him and his brother Senator Colgan in the mornings at daily mass. The first time I saw him I had to do a double take because they looked so much alike I thought they were twins. Bob reminded me of my own father who passed in 2010, he had a similar character and carried himself the same way. I looked forward to having little talks after mass. He will be greatly missed.

“ I have so many fond memories of Uncle Bob. The ones that come to mind the most include attending mass with him. He was such a beautiful Christian/ devout Catholic. He reinforced my own spirituality. To all, my condolences. He will be greatly missed ❤️

A man of honor and humility. A man of kindness and character. A man of conviction and strength. A man of integrity and valor. A man of God, and a man of love..... A man of men.

I always felt loved in his presence. The loss is beyond words. I love you Papa.
