“My life and my mate forever. Danny when we first meet you stole my heart and I stole yours. God took us threw a beautiful journey together and I will never forget the awesome relationship we had with each other. I will always treasure the little love notes you laid on my bed and the ones you put in my lunch bags. I knew I was the love of your life and you were mind. I know you are in heaven with the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. I know you must be hanging out with Gang so give him and our family hugs and kisses. Your loving wife, Connie

“ Danny was a true sweetheart! I took care of his daughters, when they were babies. He was the first man to give me jewelry. I was only 14. He wanted to give something to me for christmas. I will never forget the way he could make anyone feel at ease. He truly loved most people. Always so kind. I love this picture, shows his smile, the window to the gentleness inside. I am very happy he was part of my life. Hugs and prayers to his family!Debbie Robinson extended family..neice
