“ God Bless the Fleming and extended family. Steve used to love to come and get the produce from our roadside stand off Moore Drive, he would share his advise on recipes, love of cooking. We will surely miss him and his sense of humor. Praying for the family and may your memories of the good times give you the strength you need...give Natalie the angel on her sleeve that will help her to endure, along with the grandchildren to be by her side in the days, years to come. God bless you all...Valmore & Judymae Allen Cognitiona

“ When Steve and Nat were stationed in California he was tasked with escorting a young soldier's body back home to his family, comforting the family, and attending the service in Dallas. He called and asked if I had time to ride along so we could visit while he was in town. I think that was the first time I thought about what his life was like in the military. Duty and honor were important to Steve. I wish he knew what an impression he made that day, I was so proud of him. I never told him cuz I was just his baby sister.

*I got the chance to talk to Steve the day before he died. We just chatted a little about the Cowboys game, quarterbacks, and giblet gravy. (I followed his directions and made my first giblet gravy!)
Thanks Steve*
