“ Bobby, Cathy, and Chris,

Words that we say at the time of loss of a loved one are never adequate. Also, we are never ready for our loved one to go no matter how much time we have had to get ready. Keeping these things in mind we simply say condolences to each of you for the loss of your dad. We know it's not easy to say goodbye but please take consolation in the fact that Bob loved and was very proud of each of you. We can all say that Bob Mayfield was a good dad, brother and friend.

The greatest compliment that one can receive at the end of his days is for people to say that he is a "good man". I think we can all say that Bob Mayfield is a "good man". What a wonderful testimony for the accomplishments of one's life.

May God bless each of you and your families.

“ Cathy, Bobby and Chris, i am truly sorry for the passing of Bob. He was a father to you and a brother to me. But he has suffered much the last several years. I know it is hard to give up a loved one especially a parent, spouse or child. But you have some great memories to rely upon as you grieve his death. Look to God and he will comfort you. The passing of time will also help you get through your grieving. I am sorry i cannot be there for the viewing and funeral service. I will be thinking about you and praying for you in the days and weeks to come. God bless you and your families in the days to come Please let me know if i can do anything.
