“ Never in my life did I realize I could miss one person so much. You were always more than my grandfather, always more than just my "Pop". You were the most important male figure in my life. You took me on as your daughter and I immediately had the dad that I had always wanted and needed. I'll never forget when I had Nathan and you came to the hospital to see us. The smile on your face and the way your eyes lit up let me know just how proud of me you were. After Nathan, Chance came along. The same smile was given and your eyes lit up just as bright. It was always such a joy to see you with the boys. Not just my boys... but all your grandchildren and great grandchildren. Now Silas is here and I know you're looking down on us with smiling ear to ear. Your bright blue eyes gleaming just as Silas' bright blue eyes do. I'd give anything to have just one more day with you... but until then, continue to come visit me in my dreams. I love you Pop <3
