PS

“ My sincere condolences on the loss of your father. I did not know him but his obituary in the Washington Post caught my eye as Newcomb is my maiden name and Hugo, Oklahoma is where my parents were married in 1929. Hugo was my mother's home town and her father was a Methodist Minister as well. Her maiden name was Eva Faye Neighbors and my father was James Elmer Newcomb from Sevierville, Tenn. My grandfather moved to southern Oklahoma after his first wife died and married Dixie Newcomb. I never knew her maiden name. They had five or six children. His name was James Francis Newcomb.

Please forgive me if this appears intrusive. It certainly is not my intention to intrude on your grief but I feel there is a strong possibility that we might be somehow related. The name Newcomb and Hugo, OK in same time frame as our family living in the area seems rather more than coincidence. My birthday is also April 11 but 1941. I currently live in Annapolis, MD. If you wish to contact me please send me an email at onceuponatide@yahoo.com. If you would rather not make contact I fully understand and that is quite alright. I am so sorry for your loss.
