“ Wallace was the first man I ever loved, and through the years I have continued caring about him and his welfare. Together we had two beautiful daughters, Crystal and Candace, who truly were the light of our lives.

Wallace loved his girls beyond words and I know they could never have asked for a more loving and caring Father. My heart aches for them because of the pain and sadness his passing has caused them. I hope that everyone who knew Wallace will be able to hold onto their memories of him and over time look back and smile because that's what he would want.

RIP Wallace, you and your smile will be missed.

“ Wally,
I remember in the 70's and early 80's when we used to go and do things, have fun, and see each other almost every day. As time went on, and as it happens with everyone, our schedules got busier with work and family. But whenever we would see each other we would spend hours talking and laughing about all the things we did and the good times we had.
A good friend forever
Love you,
Jimmy

“ Wally, my old pal and forever friend...I can hardly believe you are gone since you have always been there. You were my "older brother" and often a father figure, but mostly a best friend. I have too many memories to mention and even some I dare not mention...wink. You will be missed every day. Love, Flake

“ Wally was truly a gentle giant. He also was part of the Hoadly crowd that we both grew up in. He never forgot his roots or his friends. His gentle voice, merry outlook and kindness will never be forgotten and I'm sure there is much laughter and dancing in Heaven since he passed through the gates! RIP my friend.
