“ I will be there to support your family as well as mine as we have all suffered a great loss. My heart goes out to everyone who is suffering right now. Bobby was a great person and I have known him for most of my life even though we have only gotten to really know each other recently since he fell in love with my mother. He is my cousin Nicole's godfather and I was really looking forward to having him as my step-father. He was there for me during my grandfather's death just a couple months ago in May. He was a pillar of strength for me, my mother, grandmother and the rest of my family. I thought he would be around for a long time. He was good at taking care of everyone else, so I hope that God is taking good care of him now. It is such a shame, but good will come of this, everything happens for a reason and we have to be strong and patient. Time will heal. In the meantime I hope everyone realizes how important it is to show people how much you care about them all the time. Be nice to everyone even if they are not nice back. Bottom line, if you take care of others God will take care of you. I know that I will be trying to do that more. It's hard, but it will all be worth it. Take care, God bless.

“ To the family members of Bobby Stefko,

Please accept our deepest condolences and sorrow for your terrible loss. It is so difficult for those that loved Bobby and knew him as a very gentle and warm individual. I always enjoyed talking to Bobby and did so almost everyday for the last three years. With a smile, he always started his conversation with "How's it going". He always wanted to know how you were and had a very calm way about him. We will continue to pray and ask our congregation to share in prayer for his children and the loved ones he has left behind. We will miss you Bobby Stefko. God bless you.
