“ I been a fellow parishner of Bob's for over 20yrs. He has a special place in my heart. He was kind, friendly, welcoming, sincere and a great example as a man of faith. I will miss the opportunities to see him at Mass and his friends will surely miss the socializing after Mass with him, but I am glad that he has eternal happiness and peace. He can be with us in spirit now.

“ Uncle Bob will be greatly missed by all of us. He was always smiling and had kind words to share when we got to spend time with him. I remember all the fun times we had when we visited him and he would take us to the battlefields. Uncle Bob so lovingly welcomed my fiancée to the family without ever having met him in person, and made it "official" since he was the patriarch of the family. :) Now he is with his mom, dad, Mary, brothers and sister in peace in Heaven. We love you brother, Uncle, and Great Uncle Bob. Love, your sister Theresa, niece Colleen and George, great niece Michelle (Steve and Hailey), and great nephew Daniel (Karson).

“ I have known Bob for many years as a fellow lector at All Saints Catholic Church, and respected his ability as a lector so much that when my husband died in 2009, I asked (and he accepted) that he be the lector at my husband's funeral Mass. Bob was such a good and spiritual person. May he rest in peace.
