“ My husband and I would like to extend our sincerest sympathy to Robin's family--we had the pleasure of meeting Robin and her family when visiting our son, daughter-in-law and two granddaughters who live next door to them. She impressed us as being a very warm person with a great sense of humor. We know that she will be missed tremendously and that Heaven has acquired a wonderful angel!

“ My sympathies to the entire family & those of us who were blessed to know her. There is so much to say that it would fill this page. I want you to know how much I loved her & cherished our friendship. I can't imagine a future here on earth without being able to see or talk to her. All I know is that Heaven got a beautiful spirit and we will see her again. May our Lord Jesus Christ bless you all and help ease the pain you feel.

“ Robin is going to really be missed. But she left a good example of encouragement and strength when she went through her cancer the first time and at the end. She was a trooper. She had faith that God was going to bring her through.

She loved her children so much and as a Grandma, her little granddaughter, Hope brought so much life and joy to her.

“ Robin brought smiles to all she worked with even through her first fight with cancer. She made gifts for anyone having a birthday, baby or grandchild on the way. I still have the adorable frame she made for Ava. She would share pictures and video of her family - she was so proud of all her family and spoke of them often. She worked hard, but she knew family was so important. No one every had a more lasting faith and she was a true example of God's Love to Us All. Deepest Condolences, Frances Kruitbosch
