

Rodney Phillips Johnson

January 13, 1950 - July 3, 2025

Rodney Phillips Johnson passed away peacefully on Thursday, July 3, 2025, in Winchester, Virginia. He was born on January 13, 1950, in Washington, D.C. Throughout most of his adult life he worked at numerous construction sites. In his later years, he performed small jobs in and around the community. He lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures and he touched the lives of many with his sense of humor and outgoing nature. He will be dearly missed. Rodney was preceded in death by his parents Fred and Laura (Phillips) Johnson. He leaves to cherish his memory his friend Brenda Clanagan of Front Royal, Virginia. He is survived by his brothers Elliott Johnson of Warrenton, Virginia, Fred Johnson of Amissville, Virginia; sisters Margaret Johnson of Spring Lake, North Carolina, Amanda Johnson of Manassas, Virginia; a niece Tiffany Johnson of Spring Lake, North Carolina; a great niece Hannah Moore of Spring Lake, North Carolina; and other family and friends.

“ Rodney has always been a part of our family, he was there in troubled time for me. I could always depend that he had my back & looked out for my immediate family. A good humor, great character and a trusted friend. We kept in contact over the phone and if I didn't call him, he made sure he kept calling until he got me on the line. You will be loved & missed until we meet again. Peace & heartfelt prayers to each and every member of his family. Amen.

“ Rodney was a dear friend and coworker, he was a caring, kind person who was very hardworking and helpful to the people he met and had great sense of humor. He had a way of making you smile or laugh when you were feeling down and made friends wherever he went. Rodney will be dearly missed may he rest in peace
