

Roger Glen Leinenbach Sr.

November 2, 1964 - February 13, 2025

Roger Glen Leinenbach Sr. November 2, 1964 – February 13, 2025 It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Roger Glen Leinenbach Sr., who left this world at the age of 60. Born in Atlanta, Georgia, to Bridgette and John J. Leinenbach, Roger had one brother, Donald Leinenbach. He spent much of his adult life in Woodbridge, Virginia, where he built a family, a business, and a lasting legacy in his community. Roger was a devoted husband to Jennien Leinenbach and a proud father to seven children: Roger Jr., Brian, Sean, Zachary, John, Austin, and his beloved daughter, Nicole. He cherished his role as a grandfather to Daloni Leinenbach. Roger also played an important role in raising his sister-in-law, Jeanette Davis, from a young age, considering her as a daughter of his own. He is also survived by 3 nieces Christina and Lindsey May and Maya Luna and 3 nephews Michael and Vance May and Antonio Tocto. Basketball was Roger's passion, serving as a platform to inspire and guide young athletes. As a dedicated coach, he shaped the lives of countless players, becoming a father figure to many beyond his own children. His influence extended beyond the court, leaving an indelible mark on those who had the privilege of learning from him. In addition to his love for basketball, Roger was a hardworking businessman who founded Off The Glass Company, a glass installation firm that reflected his dedication and craftsmanship. He also had a deep affection for American Bulldogs, which were always an important part of his life. Roger will be remembered as a loving, kind, and strong man—a pillar of his community whose guidance, wisdom, and warmth will be dearly missed by all who knew him. His legacy lives on through his family, his players, and the many lives he touched. Rest in peace, Coach Roger. Your impact will never be forgotten.

“ I never thought I would see the day I would be saying this, but I hope you are finally at peace. I know we had our ups and downs, but you were the only father figure I had in my life growing up, and for that I thank you. I will always remember the good times and even the bad times because that is what made our relationship what it was. I hope you are finally free from all of the pain and sickness and looking down on us. I love you always and forever!
