“ Roger will surely be missed, he was a good man, a great supervisor that I had the pleasure to work with. Wish more people in this world could be like him. He was a mentor for me, I learned so much from him, even though he was a supervisor, he would jump in and help get the job done. I loved being around him, he was a funny guy and would bring a smile to your face. I loved making jokes while he was around, and he knew how to take a joke and throw one back at you. He was an inspiration to everyone he met. Roger rest in peace!

“ Roger was a great supervisor and was referred to by most of us by just (Sites). He understood how to keep our guys motivated and also when to offer support. He was never afraid to roll his sleeves up if you needed an extra set of hands and he had a great sense of humor. I miss getting picked on by Roger and miss picking on him. Roger always stayed positive and kept us going. For those of us who were younger when working for Roger, I can say with confidence that all of us respected him and looked forward to coming to work for him. He will be sincerely missed by us all.
