

Ronald Albert Ravella

July 21, 1966 - November 28, 2024

Ronald Albert Ravella, age 58, of Del Rey, California passed away in the early hours of November 28, 2024, after year-long battle with cancer.

Born on July 21, 1966, in Falls Church, Virginia, Ron was the first child of Albert and Brenda Ravella. He is survived by his sister Robie Lynn Morrison and his brother-in-law James Gregory “Wally” Morrison, one nephew and two nieces, his Uncle Dennis Ravella and Aunt Cindy Ravella. In California, he lived with his significant-other Ronalee Kaiser and Crystal Marshall, step-daughter.

Ron was very crafty and loved working construction as well as working on cars. He moved to California approximately 23 years ago. After following several different paths, he found his true love of working on a farm growing cherries, almonds and pistachios. He became known as Farmer Ron as he would occasionally post videos of his daily adventures.

Ron enjoyed sports playing both football and baseball and talking Redskins with his father. He ended every phone conversation with “bye-cycle”.

Ron was very compassionate and enjoyed people, always having a smile or a funny story to tell. His favorite saying was “It’s all good” no matter what the situation was. Ron made friends wherever he went.

His red hair turned gray and his many freckles faded.

He will be missed by all.

“ Too many to list. Ron was my older brother. Have known him my entire life and have way too many inappropriate stories to share.
LOL

What I can share is the we were close. My children loved Uncle Ron and I will always feel a void. Even though he lived on the wrong coast we still stayed in touch.

I am so glad that his pain is gone but am so sad that we won't have the chance to have another brother-hug

Love you Ron

Until we meet again

“ Ronnie visited my family in AZ several times. He was always a hoot to talk to. He was mischievous and funny. I enjoyed the times we spent with him. You will be missed dearly, cousin Ronnie!
