“ Dear Mrs. Weber & family:
Please accept our condolences and prayers, as you grieve the passing over of Ron to be with Jesus in heaven forever.
He was a joyful, gentle man and the diplomat of the senior bowling leagues in Manassas. He out-bowled us all, but was always willing if asked, to share a few tips to help us improve our game.
May the Holy Spirit comfort you all through the love of family, friends, community and church.
Humbly,
Ray & Bridget Trail

“ Hi Dad,

It has been a week now since we had to say goodbye. I wish we had more time with you. I am going to miss the early morning coffee when I would visit and the talks on the phone when I couldn't be there. Even if the call lasted only five minutes, I hope you know how much that time meant to me. I am the man I am today because of you. Well, I guess Mom played a part in that, too ?? HI MOM!

I hope you heard me telling mom how proud I am of you two. That may sound weird coming from a child to his parent, but I mean it. Not many parents could do the things mom and you did while raising three young kids. You gave me miles of memories (literally) and I wouldn't change a thing. I cherish every moment we had together and will carry those memories with me for the rest of my life.

I love you, Dad. Rest In Peace, we will take it from here.
