

Rosa Lee Ewell

October 18, 1944 - July 3, 2024

Sunrise – October 18, 1944

Rosa Lee Ewell (King) went to be with her Lord on Wednesday, July 3, 2024. “Rose” and “Sister”, as she was lovingly known, was born October 18, 1944, to the late George W. King and Helen V. King (Johnson). We keep in our prayers her husband Marvin Clarence Ewell of Manassas, VA, her daughter Angela Marie Guevara, son-in-law Gary F. Guevara, grandson Ian Christopher Guevara, granddaughter Janai Williams, and her great-grandsons Elijah and Noah all of Herndon, VA; her sister Diane “Peaches” Stinger, Springfield, VA and niece Amanda Stinger, Los Angeles, California; brother Lawrence King, Purcellville, VA and his sons’ Lawrence Jr., Ohio, Darren, Manassas, and Mark King, Arizona. In addition to her sister-in-law Fannie Sue Harris, Manassas, VA and brother-in-law Oscar Ewell and his wife Pauline Ewell, Woodstock, VA.

She received her formal education in Loudon County Public Schools. Rose’s career of forty-four years was at Hecht’s Department Store and later known as Macy’s in Tysons and Manassas, Va. She LOVED the game of Bingo, and like she did for work, she would arrive several hours before she needed to be present. Rose loved to knit, listen to her music, and talk to her family and friends.

The beloved Rose was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, cousin, aunt, neighbor, and friend. She was not a person who sought attention, but she had a spirit that attracted people to her. She leaves a legacy of grace, love, and her infectious smile.

Sunset – July 3, 2024

Psalm 136:1

Oh give thanks to Jehovah; for he is good;

For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude for all the support and expressions of comfort.
