

Rose Saylon Periquet

October 27, 1922 - November 23, 2013

Rose Saylon Periquet, 91, passed away peacefully at her home last Saturday morning, 23rd of November. Mommy Rose will be greatly missed by her children and their spouses, Candy and Vigil Villa, and Ogie and Maricar Periquet. She is known as “Lola Rose” by her grandchildren – Christopher and fiancée, Kate, Christian and wife, Kim, and Katie Villa. She is known for her humor, wisdom and unwavering faith. She was a pleasant woman, full of life, and always with a contagious beautiful smile. She never ran out of love to give. To her, strangers became friends and friends became family. She is one that will never be forgotten.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at The Holy Trinity Catholic Church on Wednesday, November 27, 2013 at 11 a.m. The Burial will follow in Fairfax Memorial Park.

“ Ate Candy and family - Our heartfelt condolences go out to you and your family. May the Lord look after you and your family in these difficult times. Never lose your faith in God. It will help you get through these tough times. May Mommy Rose soul rest in peace. We know that Mommy Rose will find her rightful place in heaven. Dorrie and I are grateful that we were able to spend time with Mommy Rose during her 91st birthday.

"And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all that he has given me, but raise them up at the last day. For my Father's will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. ~ John 6:39-40"
