“ I have such wonderful memories of Sunday visits at G&G Bowman's house, made even more special when Uncle Roy and family were there! Roy's sense of humor, along with his love of life and sports, was truly contagious! He will be missed and remembered fondly by all who knew him. Thanks to all who share memories and photos. God bless!

“ Bobby and Lynda and family,
I always enjoyed Roy's visits with Rebel. Your dad was kind and gentle, he loved his dog and the garden.
I know they are together and feeling young again.

“ Sheila, I am SO VERY SORRY for the loss of your dad. He and I enjoyed our casual chats whenever I was outside when he'd stop by to see Michael or drop him off from school, etc. Our mutual interest in gardening provided a common bond. I liked him and thought he was a very sweet and caring guy.

We were so sad when we heard about Roy he was a dear friend and a wonderful neighbor. We have some great memories. We also became friends with his family we know he loved all of you and you all took great care of Mr. Roy. Our prayers will be with you while you finish the last sad journey with your dad. We love you all and hopefully we can keep in touch.
