“ Mr. Large was a wonderful person and will be greatly missed. He was a generous man to me as his previous letter carrier. We have many wooden items that he made for me to remember him by, but the one that will mean the most is the Wisteria tree that he started for my wife and I and is growing beautifully in our back yard.

“ Uncle Roy was one of the sweetest men that ever lived, I have never met a person that cared about people more than him. God sure has gained another Angel. He will be missed by so many people. Love and Prayers to all my Family and to Aunt Carol for taking such good care of him I know how much you all meant to each other. Vicki Large Rasnick
