“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Roy was a special person and wonderful family man. So dedicated to each and every one of you! When I moved to Virginia and became friends with Lori, I immediately felt part of the family. Whether I was invited to family gatherings, birthdays, whatever...I always felt welcomed. And when my car would break down, Roy was always there to help me out. Or just to sit around and talk about serious things or crazy off the wall things, he would always be there to listen and give his 2 cents! He will be greatly missed by so many!

“ Roy was one of those people you could sit down with, discuss anything, and he would listen and support you, offer his sincere opinion and throw in a bit of humor as well. One of my fondest memories of Roy was at the cabin for Helen's 60th birthday. He had built this awesome bonfire, and coined the term that had many iterations throughout the night; "Now there's a fire"! We still use it and it still makes us laugh :) He was the kind of man everyone loved, hugged and felt instantly comfortable with. Being around Roy, Helen, and the girls always gave me a sense of "family" that will always be cherished. You will be missed greatly.

With Love,
Sherie

“ Kate and I send our heartfelt and deepest sympathy to Helen and the family. Roy and I spent eight years together at Tysons Auto Clinic. As assistant manager he was my right hand man and I had the good fortune to be able to rely on his dedication, trust and experience. We developed a personal as well as a business relationship and it was a pleasure to have had him in my life.....
