“ To the Redmond family, we are sorry to hear of the passing of Roy. We will miss seeing him at Denny's for breakfast. He was always a bright, happy face to see early in the morning. We enjoyed talking with him about baseball, his daily chores at the farm with Trish, and his time with the postal service. He is a beautiful soul and we are grateful to have met him. We will continue to think of him as we continue our ritual of breakfast at Denny's. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ Trish, Frank & I will treasure the many memories that the four of us made on the many trips we shared together. We send our deepest condolences to you, Amy, your grandchildren, Roy's extended family and all of those who had the pleasure of knowing him. He was a special, kind, gentle and loving friend who will be sorely missed. May he rest in God's eternal peace and may he enjoy all of heavens golf courses.

We love you Trish ❤️

“ Trish and Family,

I just heard of Roy's passing and I am so sorry for your loss of a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, friend, and so much more. Lion Roy and I first met through Lions Clubs, and he has always been a great supporter in all of my political endeavors and community service. Roy...you will be missed, my friend. Trish... please stay in touch and take care of yourself. Let me know if I may be of any help and support, my friend.

Much love,

“ To the Redmond family. My most heartfelt sympathies to your family. I’m a “Denny’s” friend of Roy’s and I’d bump into him here in there at the Broad Run driving range or when he was sending people off out at Prince William. As a DC sports fan it was always fun chatting Roy up about the latest exploits of our DC teams. He would always greet us at Denny’s with a “Good Morning Gentlemen,” and whoever was closest would get a quick pat on the shoulder along with a “you too.” Hehe. I’ll miss Roy and all our conversations. Just know in your hearts that your husband, dad, granddad, was loved by many. RIP Roy.

“ Trish, I sure hated to hear about Roy. My deepest sympathy is extended to you and the family. Even though he would take no prisoners on the golf course, I have been blessed to enjoy a special long term friendship with him. May your special memories sustain you and the family during this time and may God continue to comfort you and hold you in his care. He will be missed.

“ I had the privilege of knowing Roy during our working years in the Federal Inspector General community....and volunteering with him for the Association of Federal Investigators....but most of all playing golf with Roy in many venues in many states for about three decades. We shared many good times with our golf buddies. His presence made our days so much fun. R.I.P. Roy! - - Bob Terjesen

“There is nothing on this earth more to be prized than true friendship.” – Thomas Aquinas

Roy was my best friend. We grew up together, roomed together in college and played golf together. We were always there for each other. There will be a hole in my heart for the rest of my days.

Rest In Peace my friend for a life well lived.
