“ Mawmaw has always been the heart of the family. She was such a strong woman with a loving heart and a beautiful smile. She was always so happy to have family together . Such as Easter and the family sharing a meal together (her potatoe salad we all loved) and the egg hunts as kids . To Christmas and the gift swap game and her homemade fruitcakes . She loved her sweets and a good cup of coffee. There are so many great memories and life lessons that she has taught me over the years. All I am going to say is lemon scented trash bags (one of the life lessons). This woman was all ready an angel on earth and is now recieving her wings in heaven. I love you mawmaw and hold tight to the broken piece of my heart till we meet again in heaven.

“ I am so sorry for the passing of my Dear Aunt Ruby. My prayers are with all the family. It is never easy to lose a Mother. There is no more suffering for her. I will forever treasure my memories of her. On this Easter weekend, we are filled with Hope.... that we will see her again in Heaven. Take care of Uncle Robert , and take care of each other. I know it is hard not having all your family there with you, but know our hearts and prayers are.
Love you all
Peggy

“ One of the things I remember most about Mawmaw was her laugh and sense of humor. I can still picture her sitting in a lawn chair under the big tree at their old house whilst we ran around looking for Easter eggs when I was little. We Love you and miss you

“ One of the fondest memories of MawMaw was her laugh and the skinny bread she made. When I was young, she always had treats like candied oranges and circus peanuts which I still love to this day. This close to Easter, I remember the Easter egg hunts we'd have at her house and the excitement we cousins would have. She lived her life strong and family was her treasure; not expensive things and no one was a stranger to her. I will miss you. Love Christy Lantz (granddaughter)
