“ I had the pleasure of taking Russell with me for his first and only trip to New York City, We attended two performances at The Metropolitan Opera, and road the subway to ground zero. He was a true gentleman, and his life was beautifully centered around helping so many others.
We also traveled to my beach house in Myrtle Beach twice and had fun and sun. He was a good man who suffered the loss of a child and even through heartache no one should know, he carried on and learned how to smile again. That was the kind the man he was.
He is in a better place now, and someday all who knew and loved Russell will meet him in heaven and see his smile once again. Rest in Peace my friend till we see one another in heaven and may his family and friends find comfort in remembering Russell and knowing someday we will meet again. Charles Fischbein, Front Royal

Russell and I drove out to Snowflake, Arizona about 10 years ago to pick up a bass boat that I found on Ebay. We had a great time out and back enjoying the scenery and swapping stories. RIP my brother, I'll see you on the other side .

“ I have known Russell for 35 years. Knew him when he lived in Manassas, Ft. Royal, and Strasburg. He definitely had a sense of humor and a deep love off his children. May God wrap his arms around all his biological family and his family of the heart.
