“Doris and I send our deepest sympathy to your family. We have knew your family, including your sister, Grace.

You may remember that I saved your daughter, Roxanne, from the distress, when her car broke down in the Washington NE neighborhood about 30 years ago. (Roxanne, don't you remember?)

“David and I were sorry to hear about the death of your mother recently. We're privileged to know her personally. She had a beauty of character and personality that endeared to all who came in contact with her. Nothing can take from you all the wealth of wonderful memories and the happiness that you and your mother shared for so many years.

“I knew Mrs. Phillips and Dr. Phillips from St. Barnabas Episcopal Church of the Deaf. They were wonderful people and were always very nice to me. Our Church had a dinner at their home (House #2 at Gallaudet). I will always remember them.

“Marcy and I send our condolences to all in the family who know us. We all are richer for knowing the family and enjoyed the visits we had in the past.
Love to all of you.
