Sandi and I go way back to 1976 and the USS Luce. Her and John were our best buds and we shared so many great memories together. We kept in touch via FB. I am in total shock and will miss her. She was so much fun and such a sweet person to know. Prayers for family and know that she was loved by so many.

“ She accepted me right away with no questions or reservations, that I would be the man her daughter and grandkids would be safe with. She is the model example on what a loving parent should be. I will miss you and your infectious laugh!

“ Sandi was my facebook friend as well as a fellow swagger on swagbucks. I never had the pleasure of meeting her in person :(She had recently been talking to me about pain and trying to help me with mine. She was so very unselfish and the kindest sweetest woman. I will miss my talks with her. RIP my sweet friend❤️

“ Sandi was my best friend for 53 years. We shared laughter and tears, joys and sorrows and supported each other through everything. She held my hand when my older sister was killed by a drunk driver, she supported me through the deaths of my parents. Through all the events of our lives, we were there for each other. There was nothing we couldn't tell the other. Although we didn't see each other in person often, we could pick up a conversation as if we had just ended it. She has left a HUGE hole in my heart. We were closer than most sisters - I called her parents Mom and Dad and she called mine Mom and Dad. We had planned to be roomies in a nursing home and raise cain together. Guess I will have to do it for both of us.
My beautiful Sine I know you are in Heaven and that it is a much more lively place with you there. You touched so many with your unselfish love and caring and your sense of humor. I will miss most your sarcasm. Til we meet again my beloved friend Via con Dios.
