

Sandra "Sandy" Eveline Haines

March 27, 1960 - December 14, 2025

Sandra Eveline Haines (Sandy), 65, was welcomed into Heaven on December 14th, 2025. She was surrounded by family and friends at Halifax Health Hospice in Port Orange, Florida. She was born on March 27th, 1960, in Charlottesville, Va to Lawrence and Eveline Adcock.

Upon retirement, Sandy and her husband moved to Port Orange, Florida where she loved spending time at the beaches, paddleboarding, boating, and sightseeing on her e-bike. She also loved crafting, sewing, quilting, Crocheting, and playing bingo with her dear friends. Her favorite time of year was Christmas where she loved riding around in her decorated turquoise golf cart with her two fur babies Molly & Scooter through the neighborhood to waive and say hello to others.

Sandy is preceded in death by her father, Lawrence Adcock Sr.; her brother Lawrence Adcock Jr; and her son David W. Haines.

She is survived by her husband, Richard Haines Jr. (Larry) of Port Orange, Fla; her son, Richard Haines III (Ricky) of Flagler Beach, Fla ; her daughter Melissa Smith of Orange, Va, Mother Eveline Adcock of Manassas, Va, Sister Tamara Bowen (Tammy) of Luray, Va, Grandchildren, Jackie, Amber, Kayla, Colby, Riley, Alexis, David, and Hunter. Great- grandchildren Ah'mora, Bryson, Jacoby, Bella, and two fur babies Molly & Scooter. She was also a special aunt to many nieces and nephews.

Sandy will be forever loved, forever missed, and always in our hearts. She is now reunited with loved ones that went before us.

Procession leaves Pierce Funeral Home at 9:15am on Saturday, January 10th followed by a Graveside service. The graveside service will begin at 10am at Little Georgetown Cemetery in The Plains, Va.

“She was more than my sister—she was my everyday comfort. We talked and Facetime daily, and the silence now hurts so deeply. She will be missed beyond words. I take peace in knowing she’s in heaven with Daddy and Jr and Her Son .”
Love and Miss you Sandy XOXOXO
