“ The last I saw Sandy was in 1996, when we graduated from VCU grad school. We shared an office in the Sociology department as teaching assistants.

I looked for Sandy on facebook this morning and this led me to read this sad news of her passing.

Sandy was an amazing, bright woman and I sure the years have not diminished her loss for her family.

Sending you love and light.

“ What can I say about a woman I have known for so many years, and who will always be treasured by myself and so many others. My earliest memory of Sandy was the night she first came behind the bar I worked at Poseurs for training. That was back in the 1980's. Our friendship started then, and continued through the many years to come. Sandy was simply one of the kindest, sweetest spirits it has been my pleasure to know in this life. I will miss her smile, and her loving energy for the rest of my time here.

I celebrate the beauty of her being, and am saddened that such a wonderful, warm light has left all of our lives.

I love you Sandy.

May you light the way for those fortunate enough to meet you on your next great adventure.
