“ Shirley and family, I am so sorry to hear of Sandy's passing. I was happy when we were able to hook back up after so many years. The day we went to a Vulcan Family Day at King's Dominion, she was there with John. We "friended" each other on facebook the next day and have been able to stay in touch. I hate that her last few years was so filled with pain and frustration, but I am proud to call her my friend because she was always trying to stay positive and up. Always thankful for the things most precious to her, you all, her family. I will keep you all in my prayers. I pray the memories of her bring each of you comfort and peace. Hugs to you all.

“ We grew up together, we were one of a kind - inseperable. We had a lot of great childhood memories, and as teens we had our shared dreams. Even though the distance seperated us as we started families, we always knew we had each other to lean on, to cry with, and to laugh with. One day we will see each other again where there is no pain, no tears, and no worries. Love ya sis, you will never be forgotten.
