

Scott Phi Trandai

September 12, 1963 - February 15, 2024

In loving memory of Scott Phi Trandai, a cherished soul who radiated warmth and joy to all who knew him. Scott, born on September 12, 1963, left an enduring impact on the lives of those around him with his infectious smile and boundless generosity of spirit. As a devoted husband to his wife Cindy Huyen Trandai and a constant presence alongside their son Edward Quoc Khang Trandai, he embraced life in all its forms.

Despite confronting immense challenges and the heart-wrenching loss of their beloved son Calvin Quoc Khoi Trandai in 2019, Scott continued to embrace life with unwavering spirit during his slow decline from frontotemporal dementia.

Scott wasn't just quick to enjoy life; he was also remarkably generous with his time, always ready to lend a helping hand to friends and family. He leaves behind a legacy of love and caring, having formed profound connections with those fortunate enough to be part of his circle. Scott's zest for travel, everyday adventures, and cherished moments with friends and family illuminated his days, creating memories that will forever live on in our hearts.

As we fondly remember him, let us honor the immense joy he brought into our lives and find solace in the knowledge that he is now reunited with his beloved son Calvin watching over us. May Scott's spirit continue to inspire love and positivity among us all.
