

Sean Ryan

November 24, 1964 - March 1, 2013

Sean Patrick Ryan, 48, of Manassas, VA, passed away on Friday, March 1st, 2013 due to complications following surgery for his Crohn's Disease.

Born in Washington, D.C. on November 24, 1964, Sean was a 1983 graduate of Woodbridge Senior High School and owner-operated of Choice Vending. Sean's first passion was family. His greatest joy was gathering his entire family together. He was a son, brother, husband, father, and uncle. As an avid football fan and long-time Redskins fan, Sean's second passion was coaching youth football. For over 28 years he dedicated a majority of his free time to coaching and helping youngsters in need. His greatest wish was to inspire and better the lives of others.

Sean will surely be missed by his family and friends. He is survived by his wife Rebecca Swartwood Ryan, daughter Meghan, son Joseph, stepson Joshua, parents Constance and James, brothers Jim of Burke and Matthew of Ashburn and nieces and nephews: Jet, Bela, Matthew, Lauren, Cole, and Sydney.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 pm on Tuesday, March 5th, 2013 at Pierce Funeral Home in Manassas, VA. A memorial service will follow at 8 pm.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests that donations be made to help Sean's much-loved daughter Meghan. Please make the donations to Meghan Ryan Educational Fund.

“ Dolores:

Please know that Tom and I will keep you and your family in our prayers in the days ahead. I grieve for little Meghan, who I had several wonderful conversations with. I never meet your daughter or your grandson but will keep all of you in prayer. Please let us know if there is anything we can do to help my neighbor, friend and Red Hat Sister.
