“ Sharon and I met at CCCS of Greater Washington in the mid 90's in Manassas. She appeared stern and firm, but as I got to know her, we became the best of buddies. We always kept in touch, and if time would past, we would soon play catch up and reminisce about the past as though they were still happening and just as funny.

I do not visit the city of Manassas as much, but she was my link. Any and every time I would, I would always think of her and tell people about her. Her strong character and integrity, her laughter and witty ways. She never complained even though she could have and had rights to the Complaint Department, she never did.

Her faith and our friendship were never wavering. I am going to miss her dearly. She was the type of mother, wife, and grandmother every woman would want to be.

“ Sharon, Don and Susan and Alan were our neighbours in Australia some 35 years ago. Being an unruly lot, namely Don leading his neighbours astray, Sharon had a difficult time trying to maintain order in her household. This she did with aplomb and always a smile and to my knowledge never attributing blame. Sharon was a stalwart in her family and I am certain she will be sadly missed by them and her friends.

My thoughts are with you all.

“ Sharon and I met in 7th grade and have had a lifelong friendship. I have fond memories of our many adventures in high school including horseback riding, canoeing, our attempt at skiing and junior modeling. I had the pleasure of serving as a bridesmaid in her wedding to Don so many years ago. She was a such lovely person with a wry sense of humor and a joy for life. My deepest sympathy to Don, Susan and Alan. Your mom was a special lady.
