“ “Mother is every thing in this life; she is consolation in time of sorrowing and hope in time of grieving, and power in the moments of weakness. She is the fountainhead of compassion, forbearance and forgiveness. He who loses his mother loses a bosom upon which he can rest his head, the hand that blesses, and eyes which watch over him,”

From "The Broken Wings" in Mirrors of the Soul by Kahlil Gibran, Author of the Prophet.

Sharon "Punk'n" was all of this an much more. May God Bless her - The Goss' men.

“ *Sharon became friends with my parents many years ago and soon was like a part of our family. She was usually with us every Thanksgiving and most Easters in addition to weddings, beach holidays and thrifting jaunts. She was always great company and quick to join in and laugh. She is loved and she will be missed.

“ I met Sharon over 35 years ago through my mom and dad, Nora and Wayne Dean. She was an instant friend! Over the years Sharon became a regular for Thanksgiving at Casa Deans. She joined in on everything, like a game of “spoons” pre-dinner and a board game apres dinner, testing out Lee’s homemade flavored vodkas, watching Survivor. Her and Mike loved to fight over the wings! Hate to say it but she was my smoking buddy huddled up in Dad’s greenhouse in the freezing cold! We had many a good laugh, she had a great sense of humor and kept she everything “real”! She was also a fabulous, unwavering confidant. She will be fondly remembered as well as greatly missed for us all. She was always smiling and upbeat no matter the situation. I, for one, will be sad not to see pretty face at the table with us. I loved her much.

“ We were mates for a lifetime !! Laughed, cried, ate great food - thanks to Wayne our personal chef. Sharon fought with Michael over turkey wings - that became tradition ! She loved country music like Wayne, artichokes, flavoured vodkas, weekends out in Woodstock - so many great memories . Love you mate.

“ Over 30 years ago Sharon came to me and said she wanted to open a childrens shoe store. At the time I thought she would never make it she had no experience, no idea about the long hours. I gave her 6 months and the store would close. She made it 25 years because she has the best personality and is the nicest person I know. Would do anything for anyone. We remained best friends for 30 years. Your best friend Love George

Omg this breaks my heart . I just found out this heartbreaking news . She was a amazing lady and it was always a great pleasure to see her smiling face in Costco . My mom worked for this amazing lady and she became a instant family friend . I am still in shock about this . RIP and you are going to be definitely missed. Your smiles and great personality.

“ Spent many hours at Mardi Gras Parades with Sharon. Loved this friend more than anyone. We had great memories of our lives in New Orleans. (Some good and some not so good!!) So glad I got to see her in July. Will think about her and miss her for the rest of my life. My heart is broken with her passing. Hope she is at peace.
