

Sharon Bailey Miner

March 7, 1951 - February 28, 2026

The world became a little dimmer when Sharon Regina Bailey Miner, 74, of Manassas passed away on Saturday February 28, 2026. She was born to Doris Irene Ayers and Robert Nelson Bailey on March 7, 1951 in Washington DC. The family moved to Manassas in 1957 and Sharon graduated from Stonewall Jackson High School in 1969. She was especially proud of her over 30 year career at the Central Intelligence Agency.

Sharon was a devoted mother and grandmother known for her boundless love and generous spirit. Retirement was all about being grandma. She was a pillar of strength for her daughter Allison Miner Boruff, son-in-law Rick Boruff and grandchildren Rickey and Anna. She also adored her grand pups Oreo and Chip.

Sharon was the oldest of six children and was fiercely protective of her siblings and their families. She is survived by her sister, Lois Bailey Dickey, and four brothers, Robert Bailey, Edward Bailey, Jeffery Bailey and Kevin Bailey. She loved being "Auntie Sharon" to her nieces and nephews and their families - especially the children.

She was always up for a good debate; was feisty and fun and her infectious laugh will be missed by all.

"Rest High on That Mountain" dear Sister. "Your work on earth is done."

“ Dear Allison,

Thank you for letting me know about your mother's death in the midst of your own grief.

I knew your mother for approximately 30 of the 36 years I worked at the Agency. She was a talented professional and had the best laugh!

Your mother was the co-host of the baby shower for my son, who just turned 34, and my favorite person to join for lunch when we could get away from our offices.

We also were Birthday Buddies because I was born on March 6 and she was born on March 7. That's why we sent each other birthday cards or emails each year.

I know how much she loved you and your family. My heart hurts for all of you and I will miss her,

Diane Stewart
