“ Oh Sharon, my buddy, my pal, how I miss you already. My heart aches to know you are gone. Thirty six years of memories are going through my brain. How you would laugh if we could share them one more time.

Dear, dear Sharon, always the giver, always looking out for those around you, always kind, always caring. You taught us so many things about love and live. You showed us what it means to be a loving daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother and friend.

You have left this world a better place. You have given us so many gifts. Most importantly you and Jim have given the world six beautiful children and grandchildren, who will carry on your goodness and share the love they received from you everywhere they go for years to come.

When my tears have passed I will smile knowing you are in heaven still watching over all of us. Love you Julie

“ I am so sorry for the loss of this beautiful woman who I always called my friend.I haven't seen Sharon in a while, and I am sad for that. The memories I have from High School always make me laugh.We all sure had a great time and then we had to grow up.Life and people moved on. We all went our different ways but when we all saw each other again it was like no time had passed at all.My deepest condolences to her family and friends.I will miss her.Sharon will never be forgotten.All my love and prayers.
Love,Billie Jo Hawley

“ i have so many fond memories of Sharon..my sister n law more like my sister inever had,my friend and confidont. i remember the day we met i knew right from that moment that my brother had met one special lady. Sharon and i became very close from day one. Sharon always knew how to make others feel happy and lifted spirits even at the worst of times. Some of my best memories: taking pictures of her oldest son Jason with a huge grin as he called us to see that he put a plastic ball in the toilet, laughing about her younger son Chris wabting a run away girraffe for his virthday and getting her dauggter Samantha to do her imitation of popeye multiple times,going to jimmy buffett concerts, her many stories of growing up over seas, always bringing a smile to others faces. sharon was also one of the best cooks i have ever met, i loved when she invited me for dinner,and her one of a kind sense of humor. Tjose beautiful big blue eyesy and long flowing black hair such a beautiful women. i love you Sharon are the best sister n law anyone could ever have. i will miss our long talks. spread your wings and rest easy. <3
