“Wow Edna I still can't believe it. I know your birthday is not until tomorrow so sending your birthday wish 1 day early. You know when they say Friends Are Forever that is you and me.

You were my rock how we would share everything together our up's and downs our tears and joy. I loved when you and Bobby would just out of the blue get a wild hair up your butt and say let's go this place or that place and Lord and behold who would be right there with you guys. You all never made me feel like a third wheel of course not I was always part of the family and the life of the party, hell someone had to keep you all in line (LOL)

I will always have such fantastic memories of you and don't forget Redskin season would come we were wild as hell. You know whenever I am outside/or in the car listening to music and your favorite song comes on Mustang Sally how a big smile comes on my face thinking of you how you loved your Music. Gone but never forgotten.

Will always love you and miss you forever. Your #1 best friend (EDNA)!!

Rest in Peace my Friend. Missing you Forever!!

Aww, Lou! This made me cry! I think about you and them running the streets together and you always at the house for the football games. I miss them every day! You have always been a second mom to Melissa and I. We love you! 🥹

“ Hey Mom, thinking of you today like I do every day. You and Dad have been giving me a lot of signs that you are still with us in spirit. The butterfly that was on the deck that stayed around for about 30 mins was awesome. It was orange and blue. Yours and Dads favorite color. I got lots of pictures of it. I know it was you guys saying hi. I miss and love you two so much.

“ I miss you so much. Everyone says it gets easier in time but it's actually getting harder for me, especially with it getting warmer outside. We would be planning all of our outdoor adventures. We would also be going to Tim's Rivershore today because it's so gorgeous out.

I never imagined you or Dad would be taken from us. Never in a million years did I ever think of it. It's so hard. I want to pick up the phone everyday to call you. I love you Mom. I love you with every piece of my soul! I miss you. Come visit me please. I need you!

“ Dear sweet sis -
My heart is so heavy with sorrow and grief with your leaving. I am so sorry I was not there for you. You were a giving and loving wife and mother, and sister and friend. Most of us fail at one or more of those roles, but not you. You were a friend to so many and they care deeply for you and Bobby and your beautiful girls. It will never be the same without you but you left them in good hands. You worked hard at life and you were never a burden to anyone. I know you put more into this world than you ever took from it but it is your turn now. Your kindness and strength humble me and I am proud to be your sister. Carry on sweet Sharon and you will always be in my heart and in my soul. I miss you. Love, Brenda Brenda, I was so saddened to hear about about Sharon. You may remember me from when we met as kids at Indian Acres campground in Thornburg back in '72. I lost touch with Sharon after high school but never forgot either of you. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Sharon,
It was a pleasure to be your hair stylist over the years. You were always so kind and thoughtful. Always thinking of your family and friends and sharing your proud moments of being a grandmother. You will be greatly missed by all those that know and care for you. Thoughts and prayers go out to your family and friends. God bless you and Fly High!!!

“ I will miss your energy and your positive attitude. You always said "Tomorrow's a new day!" You loved life and lived it to the fullest. I was blessed to have those years of working together and playing together. We had so many laughs and fun times. I will always remember and cherish them and you. When my time comes, save me a seat and we'll have dessert. Love and miss you Sharon.

Love,

“ Sharon was not just my loyal and dedicated assistant at Sequoia Management, she was my best friend and I will truly miss her. We shared so much together even our names which truly describes the type of person that Sharon was, somebody that is amazingly beautiful, funny, kind, and outstanding. I will truly miss seeing her car parked in the same space every morning, our daily walks and conversations, hanging out as the "third wheel" with her and Bobby, talking about the Redskins and much more I never thought our last conversation would be by text last Friday night, but I can hear Sharon giving me words of encouragement now saying "don't cry for me, don't shed a tear for when I'm gone please carry on." I miss you Sharon, but thanks for the memories.

Praying for the entire family

*Love,
Sharon Robinson*

“ Sharon (Edna) My dearest and long time friend. I just don't know where to begin. My heart is so full that words can never express how deep our friend ship was and always will be. You were my rock and we shared so many stories together. You were such a wonderful and dear friend. Edna you would always tell me not to dwell on the small stuff life goes on (who will keep me in line now)! Man I thought I was a Redskins fan you really had me beat. How we would always see who could put up their REDSKINS STUFF FIRST - OH HOW I WILL MISS THOSE GOOD TIMES! I will promise you that we will keep up the tradition!!!!!!

My heart goes out to the family Robert, Melissa and Laura and the lovely grandchildren and of course her sisters, mom and husband.

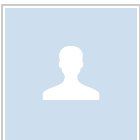

You will be deeply missed which words can never express. May you rest in peace! Love forever!!!!!!! Lou (EDNA)!

I've only met a few people who genuinely and proudly claim that they love all types of music, and you were one of them. Thank you for being such a great Aunt and sister to my mom. We will all miss you more than words can say. I love you! ❤️❤️ - Kayleigh*

“ Missing someone is not about how long it's been since you have seen them or amount of time since you have talked..... It's about the very moment when you are doing something and wishing they were there with you... !The most wonderful places to be in this world are: in someone's thoughts. Someone's prayers and someone's Heart. 19 years of being Sharon's neighbor I did not know her well but I can say and see that her family loved, laughed and shared a bond that is unbreakable. She will be missed!

“ Edna; we are all so devastated. My wonderful, beautiful ole friend; so many memories, I am not sure even where to begin. Such a fun loving, live for this moment, take chances and never ending energy! Screaming at your Redskins plays in my mind, over and over and over again! At the end of the day, you called the plays better than any coach we've had over all these years. Girlfriend, you gave us all the nick-name of "Edna"; which made me always feel like we were "Lucy & Ethel" from the "I Love Lucy" show!!! I think sometimes with all our antics; memories and adventures together; with Bob & Steve rolling their eyes, we were exactly like them. Our love goes out to Bob, Laura & her family, Melissa & her family and especially your grandbabies, which I know are your world! I know for sure they will always have you as their special guardian angel, as well as Bob & your girls that you were so proud of. Our love also goes out to Brenda and her family, Sandra and her family; and special love to Sharon's Mom & Jessie!!! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ So sad to hear of the loss of such a kind and spirited person. We worked together years ago and I still have warm memories of time spent eating lunch, doing a little work!!!! and climbing the fence behind our building so she could catch a glimpse of any Redskin! “ I'm unsure where to begin...My friendship with Sharon began as co-workers many many years ago and grew into a personal friendship as well, in spite of the fact that I am a Dallas Cowboys fan. From hanging out at her house dodging kids and dogs, to attending social events & parties, for holidays or any random reason - Sharon was always laughing and smiling. She was a kind person, with a soft and wonderful soul, who was always there for both family and friends. My heart breaks for your family, knowing how close you were. Watch over them now and always as they take each day one moment at a time, continuing to love you but learning to live without you. Rest in heaven my dear friend.

“ I love you mom. I miss you more than anything in this world. You were my rock, my everything. I could tell you anything and wouldn't judge but just give me the best advise ever. I'm so lost and just don't even know what to do without you! I can't imagine my life without you! I wish you could just give me one of your famous bear hugs that you are known for one more time. I see you all over the house. Melissa and I could smell you as we are going through your clothes. I'm gonna make you proud. This house and my life will never be the same! My heart is broken. 💔 Love you! Laura
