“ Sharon had a huge heart, her family was her life. She had a compassionate heart and tried to see the good in people. She also had quite a sense of humor. She would do anything she could for her family & friends. Sharon will be missed....by all those that were blessed to know her and to have had her in their lives. I pray God will give her family all the comfort & peace & love they will need to face the days ahead. Hold onto the many wonderful memories of dear Sharon, for they are precious and will be cherished and live on forever in your hearts. Lisa Sowers & Family
