“ I met Sheri in 2013 in Miami, FL at the Colon Cancer Alliance Conference. We were two girls from Tennessee who had been diagnosed with colon cancer at the same time AND we both drove convertible VW Bugs. Sheri was a rare and beautiful soul indeed. Our conversations were always filled with sunshine and laughter... and even on the cloudiest of days, she could always find the silver lining.

*With my deepest sympathy, sending love, prayers and strength to the family,

“ I will always have fond memories of Sheri. We knew each other from Dandridge Elementary to JCHS. And as friends do we lost touch, but through Facebook I was able to learn that she was very proud of her children and their accomplishments. She was very positive and encouraging and through her faith was able to endure more than people should with her illness. She will be sorely missed by many and never forgotten.
Praying for her family and remembering her fondly.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Sheri on facebook through Colontown. I am a colorectal cancer survivor. Sheri was right there through my ups and downs and always knew when I needed a friend. I just talked to her on facebook two days before she paased to thank her for sharing my post seeking a kidney donor. Even being in the hospital and fighting to breathe, she was thinking of others and being her very kind and thoughtful self. I will really miss her! My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Sheri. She was always making me laugh, call me out when I needed it, and just sending me a hug. She was my best friend that loved me no matter what. I'm a better person from having her and her family in my life. They say some people go through life and never have a best friend. I was blessed in that I did. And her name was Sheri Jameson. I love her deeply and I miss her and always will.

“ My condolences to Sheri's family. I met Sheri in our colorectal cancer group, and even though it was an online group, she still managed to brighten up the place! She kept us laughing with silly pictures and quotes! (I will think of her every "hump day"!) I have been praying for Sheri for a long time now, and I will continue to pray for her family, whom she adored with all of her being. Rest now Sheri, in the arms of your Savior. I know your reward is great! Love, Tina

“ It was a true blessing to have known Sheri. Even though everything she was going through she would always come to school with a smile and a wonderful attitude towards life and a love for her family. She will be missed. Prayers for her husband and children.
