“ I wanted to Thank everyone for coming to Celebrate the life of an amazing person. She was a great mother and wife but as you heard an amazing friend as well. If you knew her i am sure you know that your life is better for it. The stories that were told I had heard some and some were new. The time we had Sherri in our lives was a better time. She inspired me to be better and I plan to take it into the future I hope you do as well. For those of you who have been touched by this evil disease, I wanted you to know about Clinicaltrials.gov. Took us awhile to find it. I do not want you to have to wait.

Like Sherri said.

Life can change in an instant Be grateful for everything you have and do what you can with it

And this is

Sherri certainly loved life, but most of all, she loved her family. They always came first. She had a deep care for her friends and loved relaxing with them in front of a campfire. She lived these past three years exhibiting exceptional strength and an incredible will to live. God bless her and those she loved with comfort and peace. You fought the good fight my beautiful friend.

I love you Sherri and I miss you so much. We shared many stories, laughs, drinks and traveled together from boating to camping, sitting by the fires with a drink in hand and your infectious laugh...I can just hear it now. You fought a big fight and stayed positive through it all...You have been a great role model for Makayla and Aiden and such a faithful friend. You will forever be in my heart and mind, such a beautiful lady inside and out...Never forgotten. -Paula Keiper
