“ Dear Robert,teresa,neal,candice, and family. sorry to hear about aunt shirley. she was a sweet lady, and fun to be around. always had a smile on her face. dad(Buddy) would alway's say shirley was pretty enough to have been in a beauty contest.
i wish i had spent more time with you robert, shirley, and family. you guy's were alway's fun to be around. after not having a drivers license for 25 years it was hard to get around , and visit as much as i would have liked to. i get my permit back in december, and hope to visit you, and family.
ill close for now, thanking of you, and family at this time of great sorrow. may you find peace, and comfort in your memories. With Sympathy.

Love, tim
