“ We only knew Sidney professionally, and for a short time in which he endeared himself to us. Diane and I enjoyed his love of life and outgoing personality. We want to express our deepest heartfelt sympathy to his family and that our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow.

“ Brenda:

Your pain must run deep and your sorrow great. Even though I did not have the pleasure of meeting your husband... I know you to be such a very special person, so he too must have shared a gift of warmth, a kind nature and a loving way. I know the days ahead will be difficult, but I hope the days of memories will comfort you along the way. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
