“ From Charles & Zora Sampson:

Sondra was a dear friend that we spent many memorable times with; with her and her mates, John and Henry. There was bowling in the church league with her husband John. Then there were the many Walking the World tours that we did with her and Henry, especially to Maine. We had a wonderful time with her and Henry in Maui with Dalton and Jackie Rutherford. Sondra with us on a tour of Europe that she thoroughly enjoyed. Her and Zora spent many hours on the phone together reminiscing about old times and keeping up with current events, especially taking of her mother. Her relationship with Zora was special where they could share solemn moments, times to laugh and rejoice in all aspects of life; her fellowship will be sorely missed. May she rest in peace in the arms of her Jesus.
